ABOUT CAMP WINGMANN

Camp Wingmann was originally founded in 1939 as a place set aside for kids (and adults) to come and have fun while growing in their faith in Christ. It is located on forty-two acres wrapping around Trout Lake about four miles North of the town of Avon Park. The rustic buildings are mostly nestled under moss-draped live oaks. The Lodge and all the cabins are air-conditioned.

Camp Wingmann is affiliated with the Episcopal Diocese of Central Florida and is open to people of all ages and backgrounds.

LOCATION

Camp Wingmann is located in Central Florida approximately one hour and fifteen minutes south of Orlando, just off of US-27. For detailed directions call Camp Wingmann toll free at 866-526-3380 or visit them at:

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

The Rev. Canon Dr. Justin Holcomb

Justin is an Episcopal priest (serving as the Canon for Vocations in the Diocese of Central Florida) and teaches theology and apologetics at Gordon-Conwell-Theological Seminary and Reformed Theological Seminary. He holds two masters degrees from Reformed Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. from Emory University. Justin and his wife, Lindsey, live in Orlando, Florida, with their two daughters.

Justin has written and edited 14 books, including: Know the Heretics, Know the Creeds and Councils, On the Grace of God, Acts: A 12-Week Study, Ecclesiastes: A 12-Week Study, and What Do You Do For A Living?

In his book, On the Grace of God, Justin writes: "Above all else and before any discussion of what we should do, we must understand deeply in our bones who we are: the workmanship of God. You are his project. So, you are invited to be who you are. Your life is not your own; it was bought with a price. Live with the gratitude, humility, joy, and peace that come from knowing it does not all depend on you. You are loved and accepted in Christ, so you don't have to focus on what you do or don't do for God. Now you can focus on what Jesus has done for you, and that will cause you to love God more."
